SUBSISTENCE AND SHOW UP PAY

A. Subsistence.

1. Effective August 1, 2006, subsistence shall be paid at the rate of seventy-five dollars ($75.00) per scheduled workday when the employee actually stays overnight near the jobsite. There shall be no prorating of subsistence.

2. In lieu of subsistence pay, the Contractor may provide and maintain acceptable room and board on or near the project seven (7) days per week in compliance with California State Laws.

If this section is in conflict with either the federal Davis Bacon Act or the California Labor Code as it relates to Public Works, then the Contractor shall pay subsistence in accordance with those statutes, provided, that the Contractor pay not less than is stipulated in this section.

B. Show Up Time. Any employee reporting for work at the regular starting time and for whom no work is provided, shall receive pay for two (2) hours at the stipulated rate for so reporting, unless he has been notified before the end of his last preceding shift not to report; and any workman or employee who reports for work and for whom work is provided shall receive not less than four (4) hours' pay; and if more than four (4) hours are worked in any one day, he shall be paid for actual hours worked.

If this section is in conflict with either the federal Davis Bacon Act or the California Labor Code as it relates to Public Works, then the Contractor shall pay show up time in accordance with those statutes, provided, that the Contractor pay not less than is stipulated in this section.
